

2010 Scholarship for health care professionals.

Announcing the scholarship among the members of the association to expand knowledge in the diagnosis and treatment of incontinence. It will be granted for travel and living centers. It will enhance the stay of Spanish professionals in professional centers of Continence Clinical Supervision Group, and also to help other professionals visits Centro Médico Teknon.

The scholarship holder shall submit to the end of the stay a memory of their activities.

Official announcement 2010, just for members of continencia, endowed with 400 Euros for travel expenses.

The Board of Directors.

Send requests to: info@continentia.org